

Natalia Revoniuk

Born 1980, Lviv, Ukraine

Lives and works in Ilkley, UK

The art of Natalia Revoniuk is a unique space where the physical intertwines with the spiritual, bringing the energy of Love, Light, and Meaning to life on canvas. Natalia is an official artist of the Venice Biennale and a recipient of the UNESCO-recognized Women's World Awards, Natalia develops a distinctive style that combines sacred and intuitive symbols. Her mission is to help people find the path to their inner source of strength, harmony, and authenticity, awakening a sense of unity with the energies of the Universe within each person. Natalia's art beautifies spaces and positively transforms the lives of those who engage with it. Each painting is not merely an artwork but a powerful energy portal, capable of transforming spaces and opening new depths within the viewer, awakening their true "self." Through her art, Revoniuk inspires positive change, offering the world a source of light and inspiration.
